

Louise Carder, BSc Nutr. Med., Pg Dip., mNNA, CNHC Reg., mIFM, mBSEM, mNAP. Louise is a Nutritional Medicine graduate of the University of West London. Louise runs a private clinical practice specialising in chronic inflammatory conditions, she became a certified Bredesen Practitioner in 2016 and was the first certified Shoemaker Practitioner in Europe. Louise previously held posts as Director and Regulatory Committee Chair at The British Association of Applied Nutrition and Nutritional Therapy (BANT). Louise is currently a Director at Colab Services Ltd, a laboratory agency company based in the UK facilitating laboratory testing for European Healthcare Practitioners.